Union to sanction worker action

State employees walkout spreads

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A strike by state government employees spread to four more mental health facilities, a state university and highway crews today as union leaders predicted that as many as 40,000 state employees would honor picket lines and stay away from their jobs.

The action was to pressure a legislative committee to grant a pay raise for state workers.

Leaders of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees Council 21 in Ohio, which sanctioned the walkout for its 7,000 state members Monday, said they expected the strike's full impact to be felt as employees reported for work today.

Employees struck at Cambridge State Hospital, Longview State Hospital in Cincinnati, Lima State Hospital for the criminally insane, Gallipolis State Institute, and Rollman Psychiatric Institute in Cincinnati. The institutions care for more than 5,200 residents.

Marion Correctional Institution workers today joined guards and blue collar workers at seven other penal institutions in staying away from work. Pickets were outside three youth correctional facilities around the state, but the majority of the staff reported for work.

The state Transposition Department said two highway maintenance garages in Scioto and Ross counties in Southeastern Ohio were being picketed. The Ross County facility is district headquarters for eight counties.

AFSCME, along with the Teamsters, sanctioned a walkout in a push for a 31-cent-an-hour pay raise.

In Cleveland, AFSCME local president Joe Young said liquor store employees in northeastern Ohio voted late Monday night to join the strike.

Young said the workers were determined to stay out "as long as possible, whatever it takes to get at least 40 cents an hour."

Young could not estimate how many stores would be involved. He said members felt the proposed 31-cent increase was inadequate.

Meanwhile, a legislative committee which is considering a smaller raise along with other supplemental appropriations was scheduled to meet today.

Speaker Pro Tem Vernal G. Riffe Jr., D-89 New Boston, the ranking committee Democrat, has been talking about a 25-cent hourly boost for employees who earn less than $12,000 a year.

He said the strikes and picketing by state employees have not changed his thinking.

Pickets went up early Monday night at Lima State Hospital, several hours before the AFSCME-sanctioned walkout was to begin. Spokesmen for AFSCME Local 1487 at the institution said all entrances were blocked, but that doctors and nurses were being permitted to enter the facility.

The Marion Correctional Institution joined the walkout at 11 p.m. Monday. AFSCME represents some 129 employees there, according to the union.

Picket lines appeared early today on the Kent State University campus, where the AFSCME represents about 200 employees.

"We have gone on record to let this state know that we intend to shut it down," said Ted V. Clemans, executive director of AFSCME Council 21.

Evidence bared on efforts to link IRS with politics

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Judiciary Committee made public today the evidence its impeachment staff compiled on White House efforts to get the Internal Revenue Service to punish the enemies and help the friends of the Nixon administration.

Most of the material in the 440-page volume already had been made public by the Senate Watergate committee during its hearings last summer and in its subsequent reports.

The Judiciary Committee, scheduled to begin debate next week on whether there are grounds for the impeachment of President Nixon, last week began releasing the evidence it has received in closed sessions.

Eight volumes of evidence on the Watergate break-in and cover-up, including one from White House lawyer James D. St. Clair, were made public Friday. St. Clair submitted no material on the IRS portion of the inquiry.

Like the Watergate evidence, the material on the IRS was presented with no attempt to draw any conclusions or point up the significance of any particular item.

The IRS volume contained 27 "points of information" with each supported by one or more documents or excerpts from testimony.

They included affidavits from two former IRS directors who told the Judiciary Committee about pressures from White House aides to force the tax agency to obey their instructions.

The volume also included executive session testimony before the Senate Watergate committee in which John W. Dean III, former White House counsel, said "the President had asked it (the IRS) be turned off on friends of his."

The evidence also disclosed that John Caulfield, a former Treasury Department and White House aide, regularly obtained confidential IRS information from Vernon D. Acree, the assistant commissioner for inspection for IRS.

An affidavit given the committee by Randolph Thrower, a former IRS director, on May 24, 1974, disclosed that Thrower had asked Acree in 1970 "to investigate the possibility of an unlawful disclosure of confidential tax information" to columnist Jack Anderson.

The investigation involved contributions to the 1968 presidential campaign of Gov. George C. Wallace and allegations that his brother Gerald Wallace had unreported income.

Thrower gave the information to Clark R. Mollenhoff, then a special assistant to the President, who assured him it had been requested by the President. Mollenhoff told the committee he had received such assurances from H. R. Haldeman, then White House staff chief.

County board OKs levy, bond issue

A tax increase of approximately three mills will be placed on the November ballot as a result of action taken by the Fayette County Board of Education Monday night.

Also slated for the fall ballot is a proposed 2.5 mill bond issue for a new junior high school.

The budget of 1975 which was adopted during the meeting totaled $2,852,060. Even with the proposed three-mill increase in the operating levy, the board's projected budget would leave it with a $136,377.11 deficit.

The operating expenses for 1974 are expected to total $2,431,694 and leave the school board a surplus of $13,026.89. However, a number of necessary expenses will be incurred in 1975. These include new buses, higher fuel costs, salary increases and general increases in operating expenses due to the present economic inflation.

THE BOND ISSUE which has been proposed for the new junior high school was adopted by the board as a "resolution of necessity" dealing with an amount of $2,250,000 to be used for acquiring real estate, constructing a new junior high school, remodeling and renovating existing school buildings, furnishing and equipping school buildings and providing water and sewage facilities for the new school.

The resolution was a result of a study conducted by the board and the school study committee, and it will be submitted to the Fayette County auditor who will determine the exact millage which would be necessary to facilitate the proposed improvements.

The proposed tax is essentially the same as one defeated by voters last November. However, school officials feel that the urgent need to improve the educational environment, especially in the junior high school age group, demands that area residents be asked to reconsider their position.

A "roll-call" vote was conducted on this measure and all board members voted in favor, except Wayne Arnold. The board also acted upon six teacher resignations and five teacher employments.

Granted resignation effective July 15, were: Ellen Reiling, special education teacher at Jasper Elementary School; Carol Thomas, learning disability teacher at Bloomingburg Elementary School; Robert E. Cosgray, head teacher at Olive Elementary School (Ronald Grottenick, principal of Bloomingburg Elementary School will assume this position); John Streber, chemistry teacher at Miami Trace High School; Nancy Campbell, English teacher at Miami Trace High School and Cheryl Tintera, speech and English teacher at Miami Trace High School.

Employed by the board effective Aug. 29, were: Paul Pettit, 621 E. Paint St., who holds a bachelor of science degree from Milligan College and is trained in special education; Linda Waterman, of Hamilton, who holds a bachelor of Science degree from Miami University and has had four years of previous experience; John Spangler, Kenova, W. Va.; who holds a bachelor of art degree from Marshall University who will serve as librarian; Lynda Bailo, 20 Colonial Court, who holds a bachelor of science degree from Ohio State University and has over four years previous experience; Aaron Spaulding, Minford, who is a graduate of Cumberland College and will assume the position of band director at Miami Trace High School, and Jeffrey Parker, (Please turn to page 2)

Colson testimony help to Nixon?

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former White House aide Charles W. Colson says he is convinced President Nixon did not know in advance about the break-in at the office of Daniel Ellsberg's psychiatrist.

Colson commented to reporters after testifying for 10 hours Monday before the House Judiciary Committee impeachment inquiry. Members appeared divided over whether Colson's testimony was helping or hurting the President.

Colson returns to the committee today for further questioning. His wide-ranging activities when he was a top Nixon political adviser make him a key figure in the committee's impeachment inquiry and the first to face more than a day on the witness stand.

At 10 p.m., with James D. St. Clair,

Nixon's impeachment defense lawyer, about to start questioning, the committee recessed.

Chairman Peter W. Rodino Jr., D-N.J., had hoped to wind up the witness phase of the inquiry today, but has not scheduled another day to take care of the final witness, Herbert W. Kalmbach, Nixon's former personal lawyer.

Three committee members quoted Colson as saying he had been told by John D. Ehrlichman, Nixon's former chief domestic adviser, that Nixon had approved "the Ellsberg operation," which they interpreted to mean the break-in of the doctor's office.

However, Colson, interviewed by newsmen when he left the committee room, said it would be "the darkest of speculation" to draw such a conclusion from his testimony.

Makarios escapes death

Fighting continues on Cyprus

By The Associated Press

The army rebels on Cyprus reported they were rounding up armed supporters of President Makarios today. But Makarios was reported alive and broadcasting an appeal to the United States and the Soviet Union to help the Cypriot people resist the coup.

"I am still alive. The coup has not succeeded because the people of Cyprus are strongly resisting the usurpers," said a statement in English broadcast by a station which said it was transmitting from the Cypriot town of Paphos.

The broadcast said Makarios accused the Greek government of instigating the coup because it wants to annex the island. The statement charged that the 950-man Greek Army garrison stationed on Cyprus in accordance with the 1959 independence agreement cooperated with the army rebels in the coup.

The broadcast said Makarios vowed: "I shall devote all my energies to liberate the people of Cyprus. We shall never submit to dictatorship."

Meanwhile, the army rebels claimed they had arrested 1,200 members of Makarios' tactical reserve force, including its commander.

A rebel broadcast on Radio Cyprus said a new government would be sworn in today and that a curfew continued in effect for the entire island, with only ambulances allowed to move about.

The tactical reserve force was a special police unit raised by Makarios to protect his regime from the Greek-officered National Guard. Some members were reported to have fought hard Monday in defense of the 60-year-old president and archbishop. The rebel broadcast said the men in custody were "safe and well."

Strikers hampering nation's industry

By The Associated Press

Movers begin moving again in Pittsburgh and garbage is being collected again in Baltimore. But pickets continued to ground National Airlines today and a state employees strike spread in Ohio.

Some labor disputes were settled Monday but about 600 strikes involving a quarter-million workers continued to hamper private industry and government across the country—the most strikes the nation has had in the post-World War II era, according to the Federal Mediation Service in Washington, D.C.

In Ohio, the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees began an expanded strike today adding its 7,000 members to a strike that began more than two weeks ago.

Union leaders said they expected half of the state's 80,000 workers to honor their picket lines at state universities, government offices and other facilities.

National Airlines' jets rested in their hangers again today as International Association of Machinists members manned pickets at a dozen airports from Miami to Los Angeles.

About 1,600 machinists, fuel truck drivers, stock clerks and inspectors struck National at midnight Sunday. The airline, which canceled all 155 flights to 45 American cities and London, said the strike was costing it $1 million a day.

William Spurluck, chief negotiator for the union, said: "The real issue now is fringe benefits ... The pay increase was not wholly satisfactory, but we do not anticipate problems on that."

Base pay for mechanics is between $6 and $6.60 an hour and union officials said the two sides were near agreement on a hike of between 17 and 20 per cent.

The nation's No. 1 copper producer, Kennecott Copper Corp., reached a tentative agreement with a coalition of 26 unions representing 30,000 workers.

The strike that began Sunday night continued at Phelps Dodge, American Smelting & Refining Co., Magma Copper Co. and two independents in Arizona—Inspiration Copper and Cities Service Co.

Unions sought to boost average industry pay of $4.50 an hour by about $1 to bring it in line with steel and aluminum industry wages.

Several settlements were reported Monday:

In Baltimore, about 3,000 striking garbage men, zoo keepers, park laborers and other blue-collar city employees returned to work after a new two-year contract was approved to end a 15-day walkout. The pact included an immediate 25-cent an hour increase with nickel increases in January and March and a 35-cent hike next July 1.

City officials said they would have to cut back 300 jobs through attrition to pay for it.

The 600 police union members who walked off their beats last Thursday reached a tentative agreement and were expected to return to work after a ratification vote today.

Thomas Rapanotti, head of the police union local, said he would "press vigorously" for reinstatement of 82 probationary officers dismissed Sunday night for taking part in the strike.

In Midland, Mich., a tentative agreement was reached in a bitter 121-day strike by about 5,300 workers against Dow Chemical Co. The walkout was marred by violence and numerous arrests.

The tentative settlement came after four days of round the clock bargaining. Details were not announced.

Jury finds Henley guilty in murders

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The jury which found Elmer Wayne Henley guilty of killing six of the 27 young males slain in the Houston mass murders case meets today to consider the sentence. His mother says the conviction will be appealed.

Defense attorney Will Gray said the prosecution and defense had agreed to submit no new evidence and let the jury decide sentence on the basis of five days of testimony last week by state witnesses. Gray rested the defense without calling a single witness.

The prosecution is not seeking the death penalty, but has asked the jurors to send Henley to prison for life.

The jury of six men and six women issued its guilty verdict against the 18-year-old high school dropout just under an hour after getting the case on Monday.

Henley showed no emotion as Court Clerk Mildred Voelkel read each of the six verdicts which declared Henley guilty of murdering Charles C. Cobble, 17; Marty Ray Jones, 18; Frank Anthony Augire, 18; Johnny Delone, 16; William Ray Lawrence, 15, and Homer Garcia, 15.

Henley's mother, Mary Henley, 35, broke into sobs.

Later she told newsmen, "It's what I expected. Do you think it was fair? No it wasn't fair. We'll wait here for the sentencing and then we'll start our appeals."

Room rate increase is OKd at hospital

Room rates at Fayette Memorial Hospital rose an average of $7 Monday as result of action taken by the board of trustees. Rapidly increasing operating costs were blamed for the rate increase.

Hospital administrator Robert L. Kunz stated that the hospital cannot continue to pay more for the services it uses than it receives for the services it provides.

Kunz pointed to increase costs in a number of areas. "Payroll adjustments were necessary due to the changes in the federal wage," he said. "In addition, the hospital has had to increase its contribution to the Public Employees Retirement System by 1.6 per cent."

He said that the cost of supplies has risen an average of 16 per cent in the recent past and taxes and utilities rose 5 per cent. Maintenance of sophisticated hospital equipment has seen the most drastic increase, according to Kunz. He said that it costs 43 per cent more to have equipment repaired today than it did just a short time ago.

The cost of a semi-private bed will now be $40 per day.

THE BOARD approved bids on two huge undertakings during the meeting. A bid of $7,450 for a new emergency power system was received from Tuller Corp., Columbus, and the figure was approved by the board members.

An even greater outlay will be invested in two boilers. A bid of $38,894 from the Kuempel Co., also of Columbus, was accepted for the new 120 horsepower mechanisms.

In a special meeting prior to the City schools to seek tax levy at election

A $2 million budget for 1975 has been approved by the Washington C.H. City Board of Education. In order to cope with the huge budget, the board has decided to seek a 2-mill increase in the system's operating levy.

The school budget calls for total expenditures of $2,103,600 in 1975. Anticipated income, even with the tax increase, will only be $1,951,277. However, without the new tax, the anticipated income dips to $1,877,277.

The board explained that there is no one area of operations which bears the burden of the rising cost of education reflected in the budget increase from $2,020,258 this year.

OPERATING COSTS in general are rising with the economy. Books, fuels, food, office supplies and other essential items are costing more each time they are ordered.

Only two areas showed sharp increases in the new budget. Lunchroom cost rose from $104,464 to $133,574 and increase of approximately $29,000 and more than 25 per cent. Transportation costs also surpassed the 25 per cent increase level. Here budgeted costs rose from $45,300 to $57,000.

In order to keep up with these rising costs, the board found it necessary to seek an increase in revenue.

Superintendent, Edwin M. Nestor pointed out that the bond issue will decrease one half mill this year which means that the tax payer will not feel the full two-mill request.

"The net tax increase to the property owner would only be one-and-a-half mill," Nestor said.

The same request was defeated at the

Prior to his last assignment in the Office of Naval Research, from which he retired July 1, Commander Vail served as commanding officer of the technical research ship Oxford, and as a member of the staff of the deputy chief of Naval Operations for Surface

The Washington C.H. Board of Education Monday night employed Commander Harold W. Vail, U.S. Navy-retired, to direct the award-winning Junior Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps program at Washington Senior High School.

Commander Vail, of Buffalo, N.Y., replaces Commander Robert L. Self, U.S. Navy-retired, who resigned from the position in April. Commander Self directed the JNROTC brigade for the past five years and under his guidance the unit has been one of the most outstanding units in the nation.

A graduate of Riverside High School in Buffalo, N.Y., Commander Vail spent one year at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N.Y. Shortly after enlisting in the U.S. Army as an infantryman, he received a congressional appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy and was commissioned in 1951.

Subsequent sea duty assignments included tours in the attack transport Saratoga, tank landing ship Dunn County, destroyer Wilkie, ammunition ships Pyre and Firedrake, and the destroyer tender Frontier. Phil Morrow resigns from city board post

The Washington C.H. Board of Education Monday night accepted the resignation of Phil Morrow, 644 Warren Ave., who has served on the board for the past seven months.

Morrow was forced to resign from the board of education since he is being transferred to a new Armco Steel Corp. Metal Products Division plant in Longview, Tex.

The 43-year-old Morrow, who has served as personnel advisor at the Armco Steel Corp. plant in Washington C.H., will become office supervisor at the new Longview, Tex. operation.

SUPERINTENDENT Edwin M.

PHIL MORROW

Nestor said Morrow's resignation becomes effective Aug. 1. He said the board is expected to fill the vacancy created by Morrow's resignation at its August meeting.

Morrow was seated on the board in January following his victory along with veteran board member Fred L. Domenico in the November election. Other school board candidates in the November balloting were Mrs. Kathryn Lee and John Wedgewood.

Born in Ashland, Ky., Morrow was raised in Middletown and joined the Armco plant here in 1961 as a personnel advisor. He is a past member of the Washington C.H. Jaycees, past president and an active member of the Washington C.H. Lions Club, a past president of the Belle-Aire PTA, a former member of the board of directors of the Washington C.H. Cab drivers on strike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The 130 drivers for Hills Taxi Co. struck early today in a dispute over wages in a new contract. The old contract expired a week ago.

The company president, Ken Kauffman, said the drivers carry 3,000 to 4,000 passengers daily.

"We realize this strike inconveniences the public," Kauffman said. "Hopefully we are close to a settlement."

Specific differences at issue were unavailable. Kauffman said drivers now have an average salary of $180 per week.

The last strike against the company was in 1941 and lasted three days.

Stock prices fall back

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market dropped back today in an atmosphere of renewed wariness over chances for an easing of interest rate pressures.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was down 7.90 at 77.71, and losers held almost a 2 to 1 edge on gainers in slow trading at the New York Stock Exchange.

Brokers said many investors had turned cautious while they looked for hard evidence to support the hopes for easier money that sparked last Friday's dramatic rally.

Middle South Utilities was the most active NYSE issue, down 1/4 at 11 1/2. A 119,900-share block traded at 11 1/2.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index slipped .34 to 76.67.

The NYSE's noon composite index of all its listed common stocks was off .38 at 43.35.

Syntex was the most heavily traded Amex issue, down 1/4 at 42 1/4.

Simon trip questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. Sen. Howard Metzenbaum, D-Ohio, says he is questioning Treasury Secretary William E. Simon's current Middle East trip to promote investment in the United States by oil-rich nations in the area.

"Should we not reassess our own position on what foreigners may or may not own in our country?" he asked in a Senate speech Monday. "Or at a minimum, should we not require all publicly-owned corporations to list the true identity of all stockholders owning more than 5 per cent of each class of its securities?"

Metzenbaum claimed that while other nations have taken steps to limit foreign ownership, "our treasury secretary is soliciting buyers for our own assets."

Opinion And Comment

The secrecy motivation

It is not unbridled cynicism that suggests a link between the President's Supreme Court argument in the tapes case and his self-serving distortion of the record in published White House tape transcripts. There is connective tissue in the fact that both before the Supreme Court and in the released transcripts the White House seeks to withhold evidence.

Before the Supreme Court the President's lawyer, James D. St. Clair, played variations on the theme of executive privilege. It was argued, too, that to uphold Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski in his demand for 64 tapes bearing upon criminal prosecutions would involve the court in the impeachment proceedings.

A WORD EDGEWISE . . . by John P. Roche

A great chief justice

I doubt if even his most ardent admirers would claim the late Chief Justice Earl Warren had a distinguished legal mind, but in my judgement he was one of the three ablest Chief Justices the nation has had—ranking after John Marshall and Charles Evans Hughes. As is generally the case with Supreme Court Justices who have not been professors of law, the legal quality of his opinions varied as a coefficient of the quality of his clerks. But as Chief Justice his talents were superb, particularly his sense of timing. With the possible exception of President Lyndon Johnson, Earl Warren did more than any American in the last 20 years to implement the fundamental principles of liberal democracy. If all the decisions of the Warren Court were washed away, the desegregation and one-man, one-vote holdings justify this generalization.

Earl Warren was a hearty, outgoing man: the epitome of a first-class politician elevated to the Court. My first experience with his was both extraordinary and illuminating. In the fall of 1956, Brandeis University was celebrating the centenary of Justice Louis Brandeis, and Chief Justice Warren was scheduled to give the major address. Professor Leonard Levy, the distinguished constitutional historian now at the Claremont Graduate School, and I were asked to be his escorts. On the evening of the dinner we went to the Hotel Somerset in Boston to pick up the Chief Justice. We knocked on his door, and he opened it—attired in a T-shirt and undershorts.

LEVY, who had never gone over speeches with politicians as they lay in the bathtub or on the rubbing table, was literally scandalized and turned to flee. "No, no," said Warren. "I'm running a bit late. Come in and sit down while I get dressed. If you'd like something to drink, I'll have it sent up." We declined and for 20 minutes or so talked about this and that. Then he said to me, "That was an interesting piece you wrote on Brown v. Board (the 1954 desegregation decision), but I think you were a bit unfair." I had attacked the rationale of the Chief Justice's opinion, arguing that desegregation was a matter of morality, not utility. The Court held segregation unconstitutional because it led to unequal education—my point was that even if it provided equal education, it would be unconstitutional.

The gist of St. Clair's case is the contention that the President must be the sole judge of what materials shall be supplied by the White House. When the frills are trimmed away it is seen that what this amounts to is assertion of a claimed right to withhold evidence—in this instance, evidence which might affect the outcome of criminal trials one way or another.

The matter of discrepancies between White House and Judiciary Committee versions of taped presidential conversations is rather different. Here we have not an assertion of a claimed right of executive, privilege, or confidentiality, but an actual withholding of relevant material.

I didn't know quite what to say, so I mumbled something to the effect that if it was hard for outsiders to understand the workings of the Court, at which he said, "You are damned right. That was the only way I could get all nine on board. Felix (Frankfurter) almost drove me crazy. He felt his honor was at stake." (Frankfurter had earlier bitterly opposed the Supreme Court behaving as a "national school board.") In casual fashion he continued, without malice, to discuss the inner workings of the Court, of the problems he had getting a common denominator that would keep nine judges from writing nine opinions. It was clear that he was not interested in what Chief Justice John Marshall would have condemned as "the speculation of idle philosophers," but—like his great predecessor—with the role of the Supreme Court in the American political system.

Some of the differences between the two transcripts may reasonably be attributed to stenographic error—the White House transcribers simply not having heard right. No amount of allowance for this factor accounts for numerous differences in words and phrases; certainly stenographic error cannot be blamed for deletions of whole passages which the Judiciary Committee staff regards as pertinent to the impeachment inquiry.

To sum up, there is a similar underlying White House motivation in its Supreme Court argument and in the tapes transcript episode. That motivation appears to be a desire to keep certain evidence from coming to light.

What this often called for was a masterly display of decisional ambiguity. Once again in Marshall's footsteps, Warren on occasion could write an opinion declaring some action unconstitutional without even explaining what clause of the Constitution or Bill of Rights was involved. (Those seriously interested in Warren at his ambiguous best should read his opinion in Sweeny v. New Hampshire, 1967. While not quite up to Marshall's spectacular broken-field running in Fletcher v. Peck, 1810, it is a wonderful performance. The underlying premise was that since New Hampshire's action was manifestly unconstitutional, there must be a constitutional principle that could dispose of it.)

I last saw the retired Chief Justice in Washington about six months ago. He looked unwell, but was busy mobilizing opinion against Chief Justice Warren Burger's pet scheme for a National Court of Appeals which would filter all cases coming to the Supreme Court. Characteristically his concern was with the role of the Supreme Court in our system: "By God," he said, "let them do their own work. They're not just paid to sit there and think deep thoughts." A great Chief Justice—may his tradition never be forgotten.

Ohio Perspective

'Visual pollution' is under attack

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — "Visual pollution" isn't the eyesmoothing smog created by exhaust fumes and factory smoke.

"It's the graphic clutter of the sort typically found along business strips," explains John Briley, assistant director of the Ohio Arts Council.

The council proposes that the governor appoint a task force to look into a remedy for the problem—beginning with state construction projects.

"The state government should be a leader in this area," Briley said. "It's one of the largest construction clients in the country."

The state spent $360 million last year in construction projects, including buildings, highways and bridges.

"Ohio has as bad a case of the 'uglies' as any other state," says Eugene Smith, an Akron industrial designer who has lectured throughout the country on visual pollution.

Smith supports the creation of a task force, maintaining that government officials and administrators must become more conscious of the physical environment.

"For some crazy reason," Smith said, "it's considered unmasculine to be concerned about beauty or aesthetics. President Johnson, for instance, turned the whole mess over to his wife."

Yesterday's Cryptoquote: THE THINKERS OF THE WORLD SHOULD, BY RIGHTS, BE GUARDIANS OF THE WORLD'S MIRTH.—AGNES REPPLIER

Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Brother lets ex-wife and her boyfriend live with him

DEAR ABBY: My sister-in-law is a very self-centered person. She left her husband (my brother) after 25 years of marriage, to marry a gigolo-type man.

This caused my brother to have a nervous breakdown, during which time she never came near him to offer sympathy or help to her former mate, who would have died had it not been for us-his brothers and sisters.

This faithless wife even gave custody of their 15-year-old son to her husband, saying the boy was a nuisance.

Now, after several years of ignoring my brother, this terrible woman AND her gigolo husband have fallen on hard times, so they came to my brother, who offered to share his home with them.

Free room and board he's giving these worthless people! They have been there for several months now, and my brother will not permit any interference from any of his family.

Have you ever heard of a former husband permitting an erring wife and the man who broke up his marriage to be permanent guests in his home? He has no pride, apparently. Could his breakdown have added his brain? My brother holds down a responsible, high caliber job.

BEWILDERED

DEAR BEWILDERED: If your brother's brain were "added," he couldn't be holding down a high caliber job. But added or not, it's his home and his decision—not yours—to stay out of it.

DEAR ABBY: What do you suggest for a non-sexist salutation in a business letter?

Obviously, "Dear Sir" is inappropriate; "To Whom It May Concern" is too verbose; "Greetings" connotes induction into the armed forces.

To further true equality, especially in this male-dominated business world, a new vocabulary is necessary.

MS. W.

DEAR MS. W.: I offer, for your consideration, the unimaginative "Sir or Madam." (Too lacking in warmth and courtesy?) or, "Attention." (Or does that suggest "Achtung!" the German command?) "To Whom It May Concern" may be verbose, but it is non-sexist and conveys precisely what the writer has in mind, which is still communication at its best.

DEAR ABBY: Who is right? Here is the situation: My husband of three years, my in-laws and I were having supper at our house.

My husband said to me, "Honey, will you please get me some more water?" I said to him, "God gave you two strong legs. If you want more water, get it yourself, dear." (We all work fulltime.)

His mother immediately jumped up from the table and got him some more water.

I said nothing at the table, but later I told my husband that I didn't think his mother should intercede in a two-way discussion between him and me.

I love and respect my mother-in-law, but I am curious as to what you think of this.

THE WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Your mother-in-law should have ignored the exchange between your husband and you, but since she didn't, you shouldn't have made a big deal out of it. She probably acted out of habit. (Mothers are easily trained.)

CONFIDENTIAL TO UNCLE HENRY: No horse can go as fast as the money you bet on him.

Silver Bridge trial moves into 2nd day

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The trial to determine whether the state is liable for damages from the 1967 Silver Bridge disaster at Point Pleasant moved into its second day today.

A tribunal of judges in the West Virginia Court of Claims trial heard testimony Monday from a former bridge inspector who said he examined the bridge the week before it collapsed and found no structural damage.

The inspector, Ed Cundiff, said he had examined the bridge unofficially on several occasions, including the week the bridge's eye-bar failed, sending 46 persons to their deaths.

The collapse came during rush hour traffic Dec. 15, 1967. Survivors have filed 56 claims against the state for a total of $4.6 million.

Under cross examination by state Atty. Gen. Chauncey Browning, Cundiff said he was responsible only for "preliminary investigations" and was not expected to be familiar with the intricacies of bridge construction.

Browning said Cundiff even lacked the authority to call for additional inspections should he find defects and that he was charged only to present findings, with followup checks apparently left up to the state Department of Highways.

TV Viewing

By JAY SHARBUTT

AP Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — If CBS' "Guiding Light" troupe ever decided to wage war on soap opera critics, they'd have no trouble getting their own air force together. They'd just call on Don Stewart.

He plays a defense attorney on the daytime series, but once was a Strategic Air Command B47 bomber pilot. He also used to fly single-engine A4 attack bombers for the Navy.

A Navy reserve officer, he's currently rated a copilot on four-engine patrol aircraft based at Willow Grove, Pa., where he's carried on the duty roster as Lt. Cmdr. Don Stewart, USNR.

It isn't a typical background for someone who's a soap opera star, a night club singer and a veteran of summer stock, Broadway and off-Broadway musical comedies. A Navy spokesman here agrees, but says it's all true.

Stewart, 37, born in Staten Island, N.Y., and raised in Norfolk, Neb., says he caught the flying bug early in life. "I'd always wanted to be a pilot," he said. "Even when I was a kid during World War II, I wanted them to lower the age limit to eight, which for some reason they were reluctant to do."

After college, he became an Air Force aviation cadet, graduated to B47s, and, in his spare time, sang at concerts for kicks. A professional who heard him convinced him to try singing full-time.

So when his active duty tour ended, Stewart came back to Fun City and, among other things, auditioned for a vocal coach.

"She said she thought I had a potentially great operatic career," he said, laughing at the memory. "Little did she know it would turn out to be soap opera."

The actor, who sporadically appears in evening TV series and talk shows and says he'd like to do it more often, shifted from the Air Force Reserve to the Navy Reserve in 1963. He wanted to fly jets.

MR. AND MRS. ISMAIL U. JALLAQ

Wipert home is setting for daughter's wedding

The country home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wipert, Wilmington Road, was the setting July 5 for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Rebecca Jane Wipert, and Ismail Uthman Jallaq, in a mingling of Middle-Eastern and American traditions. Mr. Jallaq is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Uthman Jallaq of Halhul, Israel.

Dr. Adil Moti Al-Aseer, Director (Imam) of the Islamic Center of Toledo, performed the candlelight ceremony at dusk before members of the immediate families. Vows were exchanged before a panel of heirloom tapestry, framed by two seven-branch candelabra with tall yellow and white tapers, and oriental bowls of yellow roses, yellow and white daisies and baby's breath.

The bride wore an ivory, formal length empire gown; self-ruffles outlined the high neckline, deep oval yoke and the cuffs of the full sleeves. Her long veil of antique ivory silk, with a coronet of cultured pearls, was gathered into a silk tassel at either end. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, baby's breath and purple statice. Her gold pendant and bracelet, gifts of the groom, were brought by him from Jerusalem.

Master David Wipert, nephew of the bride, presented the rings on a pillow of pale yellow satin and antique ivory lace.

The guests were first received in the family room where Mrs. Daniel Wipert, sister-in-law of the bride, served punch and accompanying delicacies.

Following the bilingual wedding ceremony in a Victorian parlor room, an informal interlude of organ music was provided by Daniel Wipert, brother of the bride, opening with "I Wish You Love".

A formal dinner followed. The fourteen present were seated at one long table, covered with pink damask. A pedestal in the center held a three-tiered wedding cake topped with fresh roses. At either side low arrangements of pink carnations, baby's breath and purple statice were flanked by pink candles in tall crystal candlesticks.

Miss Wipert is a graduate of Miami Trace High School and attended the Columbus College of Art and Design. Mr. Jallaq is engaged in business in Columbus, where the couple will reside.

A wedding trip to Halhul is planned for later in the summer.

Wedding is announced

Miss Linda Horner of Greenfield exchanged marriage vows with William Ruth at 7 p.m. Saturday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dearth in Cincinnati. Chaplain Edwin D. Armetige of the Forest Park Baptist Church in Cincinnati, officiated at the single-ring ceremony.

Miss Horner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Horner of Greenfield, and Mr. Ruth is the son of Mrs. Ethel Marshall of Washington C.H., and the late William Ruth Sr.

The only attendants for the couple were Mr. and Mrs. Dearth.

Miss Horner chose for her wedding a pastel blue street-length dress with which she combined white accessories. She wore a corsage of white tea roses.

Mrs. Dearth, a cousin of Mr. Ruth, wore a melon street-length dress with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Dearth entertained the couple at dinner at Kenwood Inn following the ceremony. Later in the evening, refreshments of wedding cake decorated with double rings were served.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Ruth returned to their home at 1014 Washington Ave., here, where their home was in readiness. They plan a wedding trip through the Smokey Mountains and to Nashville, Tenn., in early August.

Following the potluck supper, volley ball, four square and badminton were played.

Players to picket exhibition game

By The Associated Press

The National Football League players' strike, having already knocked off the College All-Star Game, may claim another less important but perhaps equally significant contest before the week is out.

Roy Jefferson and Brig Owens met with Washington rookies at the Redskins' Carlisle, Pa., camp Monday and tried to convince them not to play any exhibition games, including a rookie scrimmage Friday night, which the Redskins' striking players say they'll picket.

"The fact that the game is scheduled at RFK Stadium (in Washington) and that they're charging money for tickets tells me the game is an exhibition game," said Jefferson.

"If we can stop this game, it might set a precedent so other teams won't have them until this thing is settled."

Chances of the 16-day-old strike being settled within a week are slim. Ed Garvey, executive director of the NFL Players Association, John Thompson, executive director of the NFL Management Council, and James Scarce, the federal mediator, aren't expected to meet in Washington until Friday at the earliest.

Washington Little League

Home runs by Tom Shields and Bill Pressler combined with the three-hit pitching performance of Steve Pritchett carried the Washington Court House All-Stars to a 4-3 win over Shiloh Fort McKinley in the Little League Tournament, Monday evening.

Shields' home run in the second inning gave the home team a 1-0 lead. After Fort McKinley fought back to tie the score with three unearned runs in the top half of the fifth, Pressler hit a solo shot over the center field fence to give Court House the deciding run.

In hurling the six innings, Pritchett walked two batters and struck out 10. Losing pitcher Scott Stemple gave up four hits, walked four and struck out six in four and two-third innings. Relief pitcher Chris Hochwalt walked one batter.

Washington will be playing Dayton -view in Dayton at 6 p.m., Wednesday. Those people wishing to see the game should take U. S. 35 North to U.S. 75 North. Take U.S. 75 North to the Salem Ave. exit and turn left on the 1200 block. Head along Cornell Drive until it dead ends at Gettysburg and turn right. Take Gettysburg to the second red light (Prescott) and turn left. Prescott will come to a dead end where the field is located.

Duane Tyree hurled a no-hitter, as Jeff Merchants clubbed Jamestown No. 1 in the Jeffersonville Babe Ruth League, Monday evening.

In picking up the victory, Tyree

And Bill Curry of the Houston Oilers, NFLPA president, said Monday.

"If we can't reach an agreement in six to eight weeks, there's something seriously wrong," Curry said, adding he would have his negotiating team "on 24-hour call to start talking."

He also said he believes "both sides now are ready to sit down and discuss the issues I think we would be foolish if we couldn't sit down and settle this before the regular season starts...."

While some camps had no veterans reporting and a few camps had one or two players, the Cincinnati Bengals had a dozen players and the Houston Oilers had 10 vets.

Tight end Bob Trumphy and linebacker Al Beauchamp were among the Bengals working out. Quarterback Greg Cook also worked out Sunday—but on Monday he walked out, not because of the strike but apparently because he felt he just couldn't make the team or-help it.

Five years ago, Cook was a brilliant rookie. But shoulder injuries kept him out of three seasons and all but one of last year's games.

The Bengals said he slipped a note under the door of an assistant coach,

Greg Cook leaves camp

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — Eight days ago quarterback Greg Cook was convinced this was his year to finally stage a comeback from a shoulder injury that's virtually sidelined him since 1969.

"I am going to do what I did before," he told The Associated Press.

But Monday the former Cincinnati Bengals rookie sensation quit the Bengals training camp, apparently discouraged by a so-so practice the day before.

"I just can't do it anymore," Cook, 27, said in a note he slipped under assistant coach Bill Walsh's door before going away undetected early Monday morning.

A Bengals spokesman said that Sunday, a day after camp opened, Cook had problems during his first informal workout.

"He was having a little trouble near the end. His throwing was not very accurate," the spokesman said.

Cook, 6-4 and 200 pounds, has a short but dazzling four-game career with the Bengals before a shoulder injury suffered in a game against the Kansas City Chiefs virtually put a halt to his play.

He guided the Bengals to a 4-9-1 record in their second year of existence, an unmatched record for an expansion team, passing for 1854 yards and 15 touchdowns.

He led the old American Football League in passing with 106 completions in 197 attempts for a 53.8 percentage. He averaged 9.41 yards per passing play, tops for the AFL.

Girls softball

In A Division play, Civil Air Patrol handed Cupps a 16-15 defeat and Hydys handed Weekly Defender 9-2. Being homered for Cupps, while Jody and Jamie Fillmore smashed circuits for Hydys.

In the B Division, Graham Crackers split two decisions, losing to Hydys 21-7 and defeating Mac Tools 19-17. In the victory, Graham, Barnett, Tolle, Gardner and Van Meter homered. Lloyd homered for Mac Tools.

By The Associated Press

Steve Garvey, a write-in, and Henry Aaron, a shoo-in, were at opposite ends of the voting but will be teammates on the National League team July 23 in the All-Star game at Pittsburgh.

In balloting announced Monday, the Los Angeles Dodgers' Garvey, a five-year major league veteran batting .312 this year with 65 RBI and 15 homers, received 1,082,489 votes for the first base position, the smallest total of any first-team All-Star.

Atlanta's Aaron, the major league's all-time home run king, got 2,636,250 votes, the most received by any NL All-Star.

"Just playing against Hank Aaron has been a tremendous thrill," said Garvey, who was not listed on the printed ballot and is the first write-in to make the starting team since Rico Carty of Atlanta in 1970. "Now playing on the same team with him in an All-Star game is just something I never thought could happen."

Garvey edges Perez for All-Star berth

"I'm honored to make it again," said Aaron. "And it's a little something special this year since it will be my last." This will be Aaron's 20th All-Star appearance, his 15th as a starter.

Los Angeles and Cincinnati each have three players on the first team, and both also placed a runner-up on the squad to dominate the NL's 1974 lineup.

For Cincinnati, Joe Morgan led balloting for second base with 2,153,061 votes, Johnny Bench led balloting for catchers with 2,628,465, and Pete Rose took one of three outfield positions with 2,084,563 votes.

For Los Angeles, Jimmy Wynn was voted the third outfielder with 1,625,259 votes, and Ron Cey outpolled all other third basemen with 1,593,929. They joined Garvey as the three Dodgers on the NL first team.

Wynn, who played 11 years with Houston before coming to the Dodgers this year, said his selection "meant that people understood what I was going through when I was playing with Houston It meant a great deal to me mainly because the Dodgers are winning the pennant after my being traded from Houston to LA."

The other first-team member was Philadelphia shortstop Larry Bowa.

A record 6,545,712 ballots were cast this year, compared with 4,011,237 last year.

Runners-up included Tony Perez of Cincinnati at first with 1,059,611; Dave Cash of Philadelphia at second with 1,693,389; Mike Schmidt of Philadelphia at third with 1,476,447; Bill Russell of Los Angeles at shortstop with 1,085,494; Bob Boone of Philadelphia at catcher with 871,924, and Reggie Smith of St. Louis in the outfield with 1,209,503.

Reserves and pitchers will be named later this week by Yogi Berra, manager of the New York Mets, 1973 NL champions.

Tri-County League

With Scott Grooms tossing a three-hitter, Good Hope banged out 11 hits in defeating Mt. Sterling 6-1 in the Tri-County Little League.

In picking up the victory, Grooms walked four and struck out seven batters. Prushing, who was the losing pitcher, struck out three and gave up four bases on balls.

Jim Perrill socked a home run to lead the winners' hitting attack.

In the immortal words of Yogi Berra, who should know, "You're not out of it until you're out of it." In the immortal words of Sparky Anderson, "I don't really think about it too much."

Wanna bet? Anderson's Cincinnati Reds, who trailed Los Angeles by 10½ games less than a week ago, climbed to within 7½ of the front-running Dodgers in the National League's West Division by blanking the staggering St. Louis Cardinals 3-0 Monday night behind Clay Kirby's nine-hit pitching.

In the only other NL games, the Pittsburgh Pirates ended the Houston Astros' six-game winning streak 3-1 and the Chicago Cubs scored four times in the ninth inning to defeat the Atlanta Braves 7-3.

The surging Reds have won nine of their last 11 games while the Dodgers have dropped three of four. A few more numbers like that and the runaway Dodgers may start sneaking a few peeks back over their shoulder.

"We've got 70 games left, but we're a long way back," Anderson said. "But I'm not giving up. We've got nine games left against them. They might beat us all nine, but we've got a shot."

The Reds broke through Alan Foster with two out in the second inning. Dave Concepcion drew a walk and scored on Ken Griffey's hit-and-run double. Joe Morgan slammed his 12th home run of the season in the eighth and the Reds added a run off Mike Garman in the ninth on singles by Concepcion and Cesar Geronimo around a sacrifice.

printed ballot and is the first write-in to make the starting team since Rico Carty of Atlanta in 1970. "Now playing on the same team with him in an All-Star game is just something I never thought could happen."

"I'm honored to make it again," said Aaron. "And it's a little something special this year since it will be my last." This will be Aaron's 20th All-Star appearance, his 15th as a starter.

Los Angeles and Cincinnati each have three players on the first team, and both also placed a runner-up on the squad to dominate the NL's 1974 lineup.

For Cincinnati, Joe Morgan led balloting for second base with 2,153,061 votes, Johnny Bench led balloting for catchers with 2,628,465, and Pete Rose took one of three outfield positions with 2,084,563 votes.

For Los Angeles, Jimmy Wynn was voted the third outfielder with 1,625,259 votes, and Ron Cey outpolled all other third basemen with 1,593,929. They joined Garvey as the three Dodgers on the NL first team.

Wynn, who played 11 years with Houston before coming to the Dodgers this year, said his selection "meant that people understood what I was going through when I was playing with Houston It meant a great deal to me mainly because the Dodgers are winning the pennant after my being traded from Houston to LA."

The other first-team member was Philadelphia shortstop Larry Bowa.

A record 6,545,712 ballots were cast this year, compared with 4,011,237 last year.

Runners-up included Tony Perez of Cincinnati at first with 1,059,611; Dave Cash of Philadelphia at second with 1,693,389; Mike Schmidt of Philadelphia at third with 1,476,447; Bill Russell of Los Angeles at shortstop with 1,085,494; Bob Boone of Philadelphia at catcher with 871,924, and Reggie Smith of St. Louis in the outfield with 1,209,503.

Reserves and pitchers will be named later this week by Yogi Berra, manager of the New York Mets, 1973 NL champions.

regular conference, the trustees authorized Brubaker-Brandt Inc., a Columbus architectural firm, to begin plans for expansion of the hospital's facilities.

A request from Jennings' Photography Studio was received and accepted by the board. Under the arrangement which was worked out, hospital auxiliary personnel will present the mothers of new-born children with a portfolio of Jennings' work. If the parent chooses to have a picture of the infant taken, the auxiliary receives a percentage of the sale. This money is then channelled back into the hospital.

Donald L. Walker, a Washington C.H. dentist, has been granted staff privileges at the hospital.

The statistical report for June showed 360 admissions with a total of 2,200 in patient days. The average daily census at the hospital was 73.33 persons, giving the hospital a 84.29 per cent usage. In the medical and surgical division the per cent occupancy was 96.10.

The average stay of a patient was 6.28 days, with an average of 7.35 days in the medical and surgical division. There were 975 X-rays taken and 4,680 laboratory tests performed. The emergency room treated 1,226 persons and there were 44 births.

The hospital administered 341 physical therapy treatments and 536 inhalation therapies. There were 67 major surgeries and 96 minor ones.

The revenue per patient day was $78.32 actual dollars. The budget called for $76.31. The national average is $104.49.

The expenses were $76.88 actual. The budget called for $76.97, and the national average is $103.

The actual expense per admission was $465.52 while the budget was estimated at $460.57. The national average is $766.76, said Kunz.

He added that even with the rate increase Fayette Memorial is in the lower half of Ohio's rural hospitals in cost to patients.

The longest hunger strike recorded was one of 94 days by nine inmates of Cork Prison, Ireland, from Aug 11 to Nov. 12, 1920.

POPULAR SPOT — The drinking fountain appeared to be the most popular spot in Carnegie Public Library during the intermission of the film "Bedknobs and Broomsticks." Despite the heat, over 100 children gathered at the library for the Walt Disney film Monday. The film was sponsored by the Southwestern Ohio Rural Libraries (SWORL) organization. Susan Zimmerman, SWORL children's librarian, was in charge of the program. Mrs. Zimmerman will return to the library July 22 for a puppet workshop. The workshop will include a session at 10 a.m. for children in grades 1-3 and a session at 2 p.m. for children in grades 4-6. Children wishing to attend may register at the library until 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Rule change extends demo derby deadline

A rule change has extended the deadline for entries in the annual demolition derby at the Fayette County Fair next Friday and Saturday nights.

Robert Cannon, a Fair board member who heads the demolition derby event, said the entry deadline has been extended until Friday because of a rule change which now permits 18-year-old drivers to participate.

The deadline for entries was originally scheduled Wednesday.

In the past, demolition derby participants were required to be 21 years old. Cannon said the derby drivers must be 18 years of age by July 26.

Cannon said a $5 entry fee is being charged this year, but the entry fee will boost the total purse to $650 per night. Considering the event attracts a full field of participants, there will be a $250 first prize and $100 second prize in the feature. The individual heat winners will receive a $50 first prize, $30 second prize and $20 third prize. All winners, both in the feature and heats, will receive trophies.

Old war bond finally traced

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — After 30 years of waiting, Mrs. Lucille Allen of Lore City, Ohio, has her $25 war bond back.

The former Clay County, W.Va., woman reported in 1943 that the bond had apparently been stolen.

City police discovered the war bond last week while cleaning out some old files in the detective bureau and were able to trace Mrs. Allen to Ohio. She received the bond via certified mail this weekend, officers said.

Kiwanis holds board meet

The monthly board of directors meeting of the Washington C.H. Kiwanis Club was held following the organization's weekly dinner meeting Monday night in the Lafayette Inn.

Following routine reports from the secretary and treasurer, club president George Gibbs presented a summary report on the recent international convention held in Denver, Colo. The 1974 convention, Gibbs said, was the largest ever held in the history of Kiwanis with 18,000 in attendance.

He said 12 resolutions were approved and eight constitutional amendments were acted upon, along with the election of new international officers.

Gibbs later distributed assignments to club members for the Fayette County Fair. As in past years, Kiwanians will sell tickets and check passes at both the front and rear gates of the Fairground. The Fair dates are July 21-27.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1♥	Dble	Pass	2 NT
Pass	3 NT

Opening lead - five of hearts.

Man is a creature of habit — and bridge players are no exception.

Consider this hand where West leads a heart against three notrump. Declarer follows low from dummy, winning East's eight with the ten, and plays a low diamond.

West, on his toes, goes up with the ace and plays the ace of hearts followed by the jack. South takes the queen but goes down one when West later comes in with the ace of spades to cash his remaining hearts.

The result appears to be normal and South seems to have bitten off more than he could chew. But the fact is that South should make the contract, and the reason he failed to do so was that at trick one he played a low heart from dummy, from force of habit, instead of playing the king.

Had he gone up with the king, he could not have been stopped from making three notrump. He would have made three heart tricks instead of two, if West persisted with hearts, and the contract as well.

The free finesse South obtained by allowing the heart lead to run around to his Q-10 was his undoing. He should have realized that West was bound to hold all three aces for his opening bid, and that there was nothing to be gained — and much to be lost — by playing the three from dummy instead of the king.

The hand is an excellent example of the principle that no play, however obvious it seems, should be made before considering its effect upon the hand as a whole. The first priority is to look before you leap.

Speaking of Your Health...

Vitamin K Before Surgery?

I seem to remember that as a child, before I had my tonsils taken out, I was given vitamin K. Why is this no longer done?

Mrs. R.K., W.Va.

Dear Mrs. K.:

The practice of giving vitamin K before surgery has generally been discarded except in very specific instances. When it is known that there is a definite vitamin K deficiency it is given to insure proper coagulation of the blood.

Adults who have been taking a blood-thinning drug are given vitamin K before surgery.

Routine blood studies before a tonsillectomy are always performed as a safeguard.

I have been using a sun lamp and would like to know if the radiation can cause skin cancer.

Miss M.B.R., Mass.

There has been an increasing interest in the relationship between long exposure to the sun's rays and the development of superficial skin cancers.

People with less protective pigment may be greater candidates than others for this skin condition.

The concentration of actinic ultraviolet rays is great as it emanates from a sun lamp.

Those people who may be harmed by sunlight may also be harmed by too much exposure to the rays of a sun lamp.

I lost my sense of smell at 62. Now, at 68, I wonder what the reason could be and if my sense of smell could ever be restored.

Mr. G.M.M., Penna.

Dear Mr. M.:

Chronic infections of the sinuses, allergies, nasal polyps and overuse of nose drops are some of the major reasons for the loss of smell.

Occasionally, after a fractured skull or other injuries, there is a reduction in the sense of smell.

The only way it can be determined if your condition is reversible is to be thoroughly examined by an ear, nose and throat specialist to find the underlying cause.

In some cases, small doses of cortisone are effective. Sometimes it takes arduous investigation to track down the reasons for the loss of smell.

Possibly the beginning of the present day perfume industry was in the 14th century, when the art of combining alcohol with perfume began, although attar of roses has been traced back to the early Persians.

Blast Greek coup project

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Faculty and students of Greek ancestry at the University of Cincinnati have condemned the Greek military government for allegedly "engineering" a coup that topped the Cypriot government.

A statement, issued by history professor John Malakasis Monday and signed by fellow Greeks, said the action had "delivered a devastating blow against the freedom of the Greek people."

"President Makarios has been the symbol of the undying desire of Greeks everywhere to restore freedom in Greece proper, which has been so unhumanly enslaved by the military junta," the statement read.

"We express our sympathy and we offer our support to the Cypriot people at this trying hour."

B.F. Goodrich notes increase in earnings

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Increased sales in all three product groups and more pricing flexibility enabled B.F. Goodrich Co. to gain in sales and net income for the second quarter and the first half over the same period last year, Chairman O. Pendleton Thomas reported Monday.

Net income for the three months ended June 30 was $22,093,000 or $1.51 a share on sales of $528,932,000, Thomas said.

Last year, the corresponding figures were $17,501,000 or $1.18 a share on sales of $427,373,000, he said.

Net income for the first half of 1974 was reported as $37,071,000 or $2.52 a share on sales of $971,652,000. In 1973, the figures were set at $30,868,000 net income and $2.07 a share on sales of $817,781,000.

Pair indicted for stealing welfare funds

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Two former welfare department employees were indicted Monday on charges of stealing welfare funds, Cuyahoga County officials said.

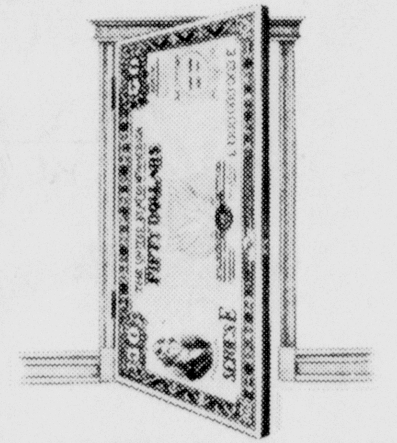

A county grand jury indicted John Pasella, 43, of Olmsted Township and Mildred Sotos of Lakewood, the prosecutor's office said.

The pair was charged with cashing returned welfare checks totaling nearly $3,700 between April and October 1973.

Pasella was an investigator in the legal department, and Miss Sotos worked in the assistance control unit, welfare department officials said.

In 1905 the first lighted ball slid down the pole atop what was then the new Times Building and the area became known as Times Square.

In Focus

by

Charlie Pensyl

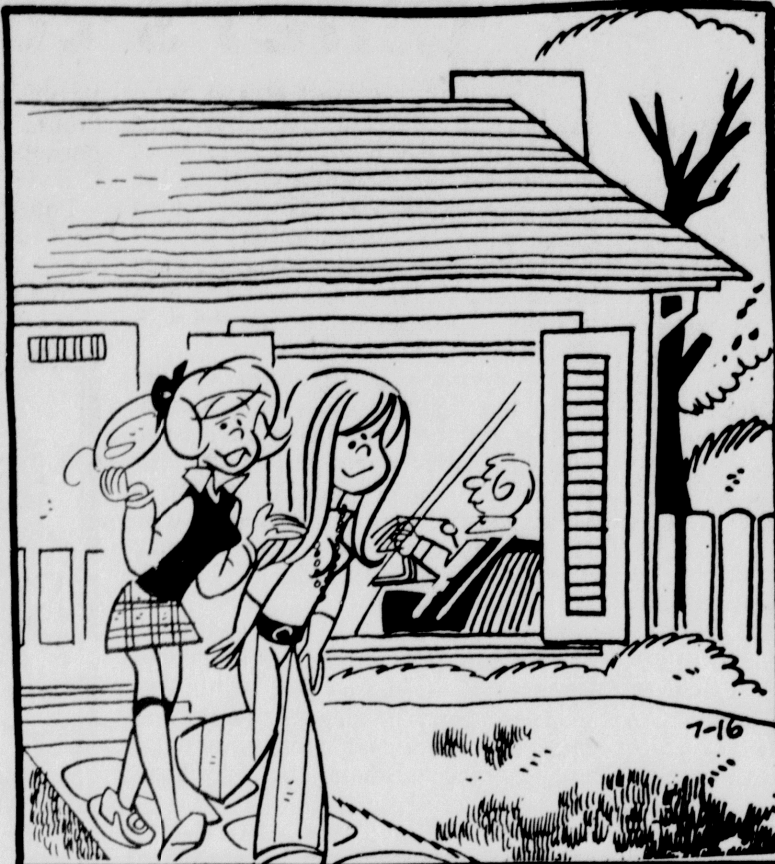

The recent indictment of individual members of the Ohio National Guard who did their duty in putting down the Communist-led riots and burnings at Kent State in 1970 is designed to jeopardize before the law every member of every Guard unit in the country. It would appear that Ohio and the Ohio Guard has been selected as the battleground and target to destroy the effectiveness of the Guard units in all 50 states. This tosses the responsibility squarely on the shoulders of the responsible citizens of this state to see that Ohio is not the place where they can kick the Guard around.

May 4, 1970 was when it all climaxed with the death of four students. The story of what happened starts before that. Teams of professional revolutionaries spent almost two years at Kent State agitating to produce just such a tragedy. Ever notice how the real pros clear out before the lead starts flying? Timing, man! And if you haven't got it, you're dead.

The best thing I've read on the Kent State thing is Alan Stang's little thirty cent pamphlet, KENT STATE. In this little pamphlet can be found proof that can save our guardsmen; proof that they were fired on first. It's up to use, the citizens, to back our National Guard.

Oh, yes, and don't forget the photographic exhibit at the Fayette County Fair. It's always an interesting show. See you there.

Ann-Margret wins suit settlement

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A $1.5 million out-of-court settlement of a suit filed by entertainer Ann-Margret after a fall at a Lake Tahoe hotel was approved in U.S. District Court Monday.

Ann-Margret had sued the Sahara-Tahoe Corp. for $5 million. She suffered fractures of the jaw, five facial bones and her left arm and brain concussions when she fell 22 feet on stage. She charged that the hotel negligently allowed a platform on which she was descending to tilt, causing her to fall.

Chief's car crash object

An accident occurred at 4:49 p.m. Monday, in which a Columbus man picked a car driven by Washington C. H. Police Chief Rodman Scott as the object of a rear-end collision, which resulted in his being cited for not maintaining an assured clear distance ahead and driving while intoxicated and his passenger being charged with disorderly by intoxication.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Delaware and Market streets and the car causing the mishap was driven by John T. Hill, 25. His passenger, Robert H. Payne, 53, a patient at the Veteran's Administration Hospital in Chillicothe, was the man charged with disorderly by intoxication.

A third car, which was not involved in the mishap, pulled over and its driver, Thomas P. Williams, 47, Columbus, who had been following Hill's auto, was charged with driving while intoxicated and driving without an operator's license.

Investigating officer, Ptl. Larry Mongold, reported minor damage to the Hill vehicle and no injury.

City police also reported an accident

The commissioners received a request form O.M. Rigel, director of the county welfare department, to attend a professional conference in Middletown July 18 and a request from County Auditor Mary Morris to attend a professional meeting in Lebanon July 19. Both were approved.

Two variance requests will be considered by the Washington C. H. Zoning Board of Appeals during its regular meeting at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday in the City Office Building.

City Manager Dan Wolford said the city's zoners will be considering an application submitted by Shirley Vess, 370 Carolyn Drive, for a variance to erect a cover over the existing patio at her residence.

A variance request has also been submitted to the board by Charles H. Tye Jr., 722 Fairway Drive, to erect a room addition to the rear of his residence which is closer to the lot line than is allowed by the zoning ordinance.
